At the threshold...

The accoladed 'Quaide Milleth' means 'Guide of the people'. Indeed, Alhaj M. Muhammed Ismail Sahib was a luminary who was affectionately acclaimed as "Quaide Milleth". Born in 1896 at Pettai, Thirunelveli, Ismail Sahib bloomed on the horizon of Tamil Nadu public life and the fragrance of his service blossomed across the whole World. Ismail Sahib was ignited into India's freedom struggle by Mahatma Gandhi. He shared the political stage with stalwarts like Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, Shri Rajagopalachari, Dr. C.N. Annadurai and Dr. Kalaingnar. He was an exemplary legislator for many years. He was an activist in Khilafath Movement. His Participation in the fund mobilization for Jamia Millia, established by Dr. Zakir Hussain, exemplified his magnanimity. Purity in private life, probity in public life made Ismail Sahib a rare and dear leader of all. He strove to the cause of Muslim community more but not less to the cause of Indian polity and to the cause of humanity. He was the Star that dwell apart. In fond remembrance of this illustrious son of India, 'The Quest' has established and been managing 'Quaide Milleth College' since 1975. The College is a Govt., recognized, aided minority institution and is affiliated to the University of Madras. The College is situated beside Tambaram-Velachery Road. It is accessible from Tambaram, Saidapet and St. Thomas Mount by buses which ply in plenty. The College has a vast area of 11 acres and a sylvan setting. It offers job-oriented courses as well. To give a cutting edge in today's hi-tech scenario, the college is offering Computer related and Management oriented courses under Self-Financing scheme. The college has men and matters to make learning a profitable and pleasant experience. The college strives to serve to the educational aspirations of the Muslim community as well as that of all other communities. Women are also admitted. Our College Provides Turf Cricket Ground and Turf Nets to Boys and Girls Student.
