Report of minutes of meeting.

The Anti-ragging Committee members monitored the students throughout the year. Dr. Godwin Paul and Mr. Arun Shankar monitored the students activities in the Medavakkam Koot road busstand after the college hours.

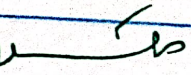

Sign boards are made available in the college campus consisting of Anti-ragging committee members along with their contact details.

As instructed by UEC, to prevent ragging and making ragging free campus, students of our college filled a "Under taking Registration form for colleges", through the UEC portal link circulated by us.

Almost all students from Shift-I & II filled the form in the UEC portal.

Posters & details of Anti-ragging act were displayed & circulated through whatsapp group to the students.

Also insisted about the anti-ragging free campus & explained the details of punishment for who are involving in ragging.
